

Visiting the Leon County
Jane G. Sauls
Fort Braden Branch Library

LEROY COLLINS
LEON COUNTY
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Today, I am going to visit my Library.

This is the front door of my library.

I can open the doors myself or push the silver button
and the door will open automatically.

This is the book drop at my library.

I return the books, magazines, and media (DVDs, CDs, Launchpads) and other materials that I have checked out in the book drop outside the front door.

This is the Information Desk at my library.

If I have any questions or need help finding something at the library,
I can always ask the person who is at the Information desk.

My library has computers.

I can use the catalog computer to find books and movies at the library. On the public computers, I can look for information or play games with my grown-up.

These are the restrooms at my library.

There are adult restrooms near the front door that I can use with my grown up. There are tables for changing a baby's diapers. There is a children's restroom in the youth area. There is a step stool in case I am too short to reach the faucet to wash my hands.

There are paper towels to dry my hands when I am finished.

The children's books are in the Youth Area.

There are many books in my library. They are neat and organized and all have a space on the shelf where they belong. My library has rules. I will talk quietly. I will walk. I will stay with my grown-up. I can ask the nice Librarians at the information desk for help if I am looking for something or if I get separated from my group.

I am ready to check out.

When I am ready to leave the library, I need to check out the items I want to borrow with my library card. I can use the self-check out machine or I can ask the librarian at the Information Desk to help me.

Some of the machines make beeps or clicks.

Sometimes there is a line and I will be patient as we wait our turn.

I am ready to go home.

I'll walk through the gates and then open the door to go through.

Sometimes the gates will flash a red light and I will hear an alarm beep. It is loud, but I don't have to worry. It means that a book was not checked out. The librarian will help me.
